NORRELL

The credit for most of this research should go to several people, not just to one. I would like to thank all of those who sent in their family information that I requested, and those who suffered through all of my seemingly, never ending questions.

Special thanks goes to:

Mavis "Holt" Williams; of Ringold, Louisiana, because with out her research, most of this information would not be presented here.

William "Sonny" Norrell; of Hamburg for helping me when it was so hard to get others to put forth the effort.

Geneva "Norrell" King; of Hamburg, for having such a good memory and a kind heart.

Garry Gray; of Dublin, Georgia, for getting me started and convincing me to see this through to the finish.

Those at the Ashley County, Court House and the Ashley County, Library for being so helpful and understanding.

I would like to give a very special thanks to my wife for being so patient and understanding while I was at my keyboard for 2000+ hours putting this together, and to my mom for writing down some of her memories that are inserted herein.

Some of this information is incomplete, because, it could not be found, it was grossly incorrect, (due to the fact that early records were not efficient), or some folks just didn't care enough to help the generations following them to know their families.

This work is not finished by any sense of the word. As long as there are children being born into this family, there will always be a need for the information to be up-dated from time to time, by someone in the family. I would like to know, for my on piece of mind, that this was not put together in vane. That someone will read, use, and enjoy the material that is presented here.

Final note: If anyone who uses this, no matter how old or how young, would like to write down stories of their own life or that of their parents or grandparents, please do so and send it to me for copy and insertion into this print out.

❧ Dedication ❧

This reference book is dedicated to all of our family members, from the days of living in Bavaria to the present, who have gone on before us. Those family members who have come down through the ages clearing the way for the next generation. Those family members who have had to leave the country which they called home and seek refuge elsewhere, because of political or economic oppression or, because they wanted to make a better life for their family. To those family members who cleared and settled the wilderness, fought in every war since the Revolution, worked the fields and endured the hardships.

Webster's dictionary defines the word family as: a noun, a succession of persons connected by blood and or name. Well I think that the word family could also be described in more ways than just that, because of all the different jobs just one person performs in that family. Let me explain what I mean this way. I have a large set of keys which I use at work. Each key has its own purpose but it is also a part of a set. If you think about it, you will realize that all of us are just like this set of keys, in that we as individuals have several purposes and many duties within this family.

At the moment of my birth, (as with yours also) I became not only a son to my parents, but also, a grandson, great-grandson, a brother, nephew, and cousin, and was destined to become a husband, son-in-law, brother-in-law, an uncle, a dad, a father-in-law, and a grand-dad. I have been called a lot of things in my life but none of them would mean very much if the word friend wasn't among them, because, even though a person is all of these things he or she (whichever the case may be) has to be a friend as well. What I am saying is that, I still have a mom and two brothers and they are also my friends. I have many cousins, aunts and uncles, and they are my friends. I am also their's. This should always reach throughout a family or the word family has no true physical or moral meaning.

There is something else that goes into this word family as another important ingredient. That would be the word memories. Pleasant family memories is something that would be cherished by anyone. While half of the fun is making them. The other half is recalling them. Sometimes people go away from their family in search of a rainbow, not realizing that one end of the very rainbow which they seek begins from within their own home and among their own family.

Remember to seek out the rainbow within our family and you will help to make hundreds of unforgettable memories for all.

NORRELL

The name Norrell was originally spelled Neufville and originated in Bavaria. Sometime during the early years, possibly during the time of Martin Luther, due to religious and or political pressures, the family left Bavaria and found needed refuge in Denmark. There, the name underwent a spelling change to the way it sounded to the Danes, Norvell-Norvill-Norvall-Norrell. There is presently an area in northern Denmark called Norrellund, as well as streets and areas referred to as Norrell. There are reported to be only fifteen hundred Norrell families in the United States. Some were in North and South Carolina in the middle 1700's coming from the fine State of Virginia. The finding in South Carolina indicates that all of the early Norrell's there, from 1766 to 1850, are from the one family from Halifax County, Virginia. A few descendants remain in South Carolina today. By 1850, others of their descendants, born in South Carolina are found in Georgia, in Richmond, Lumpkin, Gilmer, Dekalb, Cass, Bartow and Harris Counties.

By about, 1789, a Hugh Norvell from Virginia was in South Carolina, in the Newberry area. In 1800 and 1810, he was in Union County, and his son John is grown and married and in the same county at the same time. These Norvells have a fine feather in their cap. An ancestor Thomas Norvell was in Virginia about 1619. One of his clan is said to have planned and laid out the city of Williamsburg, Virginia. The first Hugh Norvell lived in York County, Virginia and was a member of the vestry of Bruton Parish Church of Williamsburg.

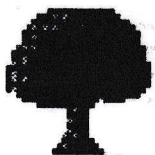

He is among the ten Vestry men memorialized as those who erected the present Burton Parish Church 1710-1715. His name and that of George Norrell, William Norrell, and a Burgess are engraved on pew seven of the Church. Decades later John Marshall, James Monroe, John Tyler, General George Washington and Thomas Jefferson are named on a pew in the Church.

A James Norvill Norvall obtained 200 acres of land by grant in Carven County on the Santee River in October of 1764. His demise came early in 1771. The citation to administer on the estate and effects of James Norvall, late of St. Marks Parish, Carven County, as principal creditors and nearest of kin, was issued to Jared Nelson Sr. & Jr. It is believed that this James Norvall is of the same family of those Norvill's in Virginia.

The reason this was even brought up is to show that these names, Norvill, Norrell, and Norvall, Norell, Norill, and Novell are found intermingled in both families occasionally, and if it is to be found for certain that they are all interrelated, it may only be determined in the countries of Great Britain, Scotland, or Ireland

~ The Family of James Norrell SR ~

*NOTE: To better follow each family and their descendants I have started out with an out-line form and have placed an " * " beside our direct lineage.*

1 James Norrell Sr. was born between 1710-1720, in Ireland where he married Jean (last name not known at this time) born in 1722. They later came to this country and lived in Halifax County, Virginia*

They had seven children; five sons and two daughters. Their names are as follows.

1-A James Norrell Jr.

1-B Thomas Norrell

1-C Samuel Norrell

 1-D Richard Norrell*

1-E William Norrell

1-F Sarah Norrell

1-G Elizabeth Norrell

The James Norrell family came to the shores of America from Ireland in or about the year 1751. This is thought to be so, because tax records on this branch of the Norrell family can only be found for the year 1752. They arrived here only three years before Benjamin Franklin drafted the Albany Plan of Union. Franklin realized that the common interest of the different colonies were making it necessary for them to have some kind of common government. Most colonist did not like the Albany Plan of Union, because they were afraid of losing some of their independence over an issue that didn't (at that time) directly effect them. Only a few short years later the Mason-Dixon line was surveyed out in order to put to rest most of the disputes between colonial governments over territory and boundary lines.

Townships and counties were established, people were appointed to local positions, and were trying to govern themselves, even though it was very limited. As you can see the Norrell family has been in the thick of things as far as this country is concerned for many years. Even taking part in the Revolutionary War and the Civil War.

James Norrell Sr. and his wife Jean continued to live out their life in Halifax County, Virginia. James Sr. left a will presented in Halifax County, Court on April 18, 1771 just few years short of our freedom from England.

The Will named his wife and all of his children as heirs to his estate. James and Jean are both buried in Halifax county, Virginia. RS

The Last Will and Testament of James Norrell Sr.

IN THE NAME OF GOD AMEN, the 5th day of April in the year of our Lord 1770, I James Norrell of the County of Halifax, being very sick and weak in body, but of perfect mind and memory thanks be given to God, therefore calling into mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and testament, that it to say, principally and first of all I give and recommend it to the Earth to be buried in a Christian like manner, at the discretion of my executors, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God and as beseeching such worldly estate wherewith hath pleased God to bless me within this life I give, devise and dispose of same in the following manner.

Imprimes it is my will and I do order, that the first place, all my debts and funeral charges be paid and satisfied. Thence, I order the land to be sold first toward paying the debts and what effects is to be in the possession of my dearly beloved wife Jean during her natural life, only such horses and cows which I have given to some of my children which she is sensible of.

I do appoint my said wife Jean and my son Thomas as my sole executors of this, my last will and testament and do equally that what goods and chattels at my wife's decease be equally divided between my sons James, Thomas, Samuel, Richard and William and my daughters Sarah and Elizabeth and I do here by authority disallow, revoke and disanul all and every other former testament, wills, legacies and executors by me in any way before this time named. Willed and bequeathed, ratifying and confirming of this and no other to be my last will and testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the Day and Year above written.

This Last will and Testament was made in 1770 and probated in 1771. James Norrell named his wife Jean and son Thomas to serve as the Executors, Thomas refused to serve, however. James Norrell Jr. served in the Revolutionary War in the Carolina Militia, first as a private and later as a sargent under Colonel Anderson. File # 5558

His wife Mary furnished provisions and forage for the militia, under very dangerous and adverse conditions.

~ The Family of Thomas Norrell ~

1-B Thomas Norrell was born to James and Jean Norrell in Ireland in 1747. He moved to this country with his parents in 1751.

Not much information was to be found on this person except that he did purchase 61 acres on Halfway Swamp Creek (not far from the Saluda River) in District 96, Province of South Carolina, on January 2, 1776. In 1778 he and his brother James Jr. were on jury duty together in South Carolina below old 96 district. The land was sold on July 13, 1785 to Rufus Inman.

~ The Family of Samuel Norrell ~

1-C Samuel Norrell was born in Ireland to James and Jean Norrell in the year 1748. He moved to this country with his parents in 1751. He was living in Halifax county, Virginia, and some point moved to South Carolina.

He served in the Revolutionary War in The Carolina Militia under Captain Siquefield. (Revolutionary War File # 5561).

The British in the South counted on local support, but they soon found guerrilla bands picking away at them. These irregular soldiers continued to resist the Redcoats. Soon Cornwallis was in serious trouble in the South.

After Gates' defeat at Camden, South Carolina, Nathaniel Greene was put in charge of the American forces in the South. Greene used hit-and-run tactics against Cornwallis with brilliant results. A band of South Carolina militiamen had already trapped a Torey force at King's Mountain in South Carolina. At the Battle of Cowpens in So. Carolina one flank soundly defeated the British. They then rejoined Greene and attacked Cornwallis' army at Guilford Court House, forcing the British to retreat to the coast.

After the war, he went from Union county, Sc. to Spartanburg county, South Carolina, in 1800. Found on page 180 of the 1800 Carolina Census.

- 1-A-8-1-10 William Henry Harrison Norrell b.1849 in Rankin CO, Mississippi. d. 1925.*

Thomas and Dycie married around the year 1823, while living in South Carolina. I can only assume that they were still in the area of Edgefield. Some time after the birth of their seventh or possibly the eighth child, the family moved to Lumpkin county, Georgia (1834). Later the family(those still at home at the time)- moved to Rankin County, Mississippi. There, Thomas became the County Judge and Plantation Owner. Is the Author of the book entitled "Reminiscences", a book of the Norrell family. I am going to find that book and maybe it will shed some light on the early Norrell Family.

1-A-8-1-1 John Benton Norrell born to Thomas N. Norrell and Dycie Benton. In the year 1824, in South Carolina. John died on August 2, 1885. Killed by ambush near Fort Wayne, Alabama along with his brother, James Robert Norrell possibly by carpetbaggers. John enlisted July 1861 as a Private in Freeman's Guard Volunteers, Company G 28th Colquit Brigade. He fought at Petersburg, Fredricksburg and Chichamauga. (Nubian Norell, eldest son of William Henry Harrison Norrell remembered going to the funeral of John and James Robert in Alabama). In the 1850 census, shows that John was living in Dekalb County, Georgia.

~ The Family of Thomas E. Norrell ~

1-A-8-1-2 Thomas Ebenezer Benton Norrell, born to Thomas N. and Dycie (Benton) Norrell in 1825 in South Carolina. Met and married Sarah Marie Williams in Gilmer County Georgia, on May 25, 1845. In 1850 the Census shows that they moved to Georgia and were living there at the time. In 1861 Thomas Ebenezer enlisted at Resaca, Georgia, in Freeman's Guard Volunteers, Company G 28th Colquit Brigade. He lost a leg at Ocean Pond in 1863. Fought at Ocean Pond, Cold Harbor and Chickamauga. After the war, he was in Gordon County, Georgia as he was accused of stealing a horse, placing it on a river barge, going down river to Rome GA., and across the mountain to Gadsden Alabama, where the horse was sold. The case was dismissed against him, because the man that owned the animal could not give the Court a positive Identification as Thomas being the hooded man who came for the horse, because the one who stole him had two legs. Sometime after the horse case, Thomas E. Norrell left the area. He and his wife had a farm near Rome, Georgia; however, it is recorded that she never heard from him again. From all indications he left for Texas. During the early 1850's Thomas E. and his brothers John B. and James Robert - and others, left Ga. and traveled to California during the Gold Rush. They found gold, but possibly spent it, going and coming through Texas. They liked it well and planned to return there someday. Thomas E. did return to Texas and according to Civil War records, died in Sweetwater, Texas in 1880 and is buried there. His wife, Sarah Marie sold their land near Rome, Ga., and with her family left for Texas. ~ The Family of Richard Norrell ~

*1-Ø Richard Norrell, born to James and Jean Norrell in 1749 in the country of Ireland and moved to America with his parents in the year 1751. Lived in the state of Virginia and later moved to South Carolina. There he found and married Frances Cane, born in 1750, Granville county, South Carolina on August 21, 1777. Daughter of Mr. & Mrs. James Cane Sr. Richard and Frances had three children, two sons and one daughter. Their names are as follows:

*1-Ø-1 Joseph Norrell (This is the lineage of the Arkansas Norrells)

1-Ø-2 Henery Augusta Norrell (This is the lineage of Mavis "Holt" Williams)

1-Ø-3 Nancy Norrell

Served in the Revolutionary War, was in the Carolina Militia as a Private under Colonel Anderson, (Revolutionary War File # 5560)

In 1767 in Halifax county, Virginia, Richard and his Dad, James Norrell Sr., went to the Halifax County Courthouse and made a declaration that they were from that part of Great Britain called Ireland, and this was the first time to make this declaration. It is thought that this was done on or close to Richard's eighteenth birthday so he would become eligible to receive a parcel of land by law.

In the year 1773 Richard received a land grant of 150 acres in Granville county, South Carolina on the Savannah River.

In 1777 he married Frances Cane, in Abbeville District South Carolina by Reverend S. Emmett Lucas Jr. Recorded in the Abbeville District SC. marriages 1777-1852. Also recorded Aug. 21, 1777, Box 21, Package 486 Abbeville Courthouse.

In 1785 was found owning land east of present day Greenwood on Wilson's Creek on Long Cane Rd. near Logan's Mill.

His family was talked about in a book by Margaret Watson, "Greenwood County Sketches"

Richard Norrell came to South Carolina in 1773, and was later found in the Greenwood area. He was on page 59 of the 1790 Census of Edgefield, South Carolina District Ninety- Six. At the time he had a son sixteen and upward and one under sixteen, a wife and two other females. He was not found again.

❧ The Family of Joseph Norrell Sr. ❧

1-❧-1 Joseph Norrell Sr., born in the year 1791 in Greenwood, South Carolina. Married first wife and had a child named Joseph Norrell Jr., mother's name Sarah Josephine Elmore.

1-❧-1-A-1 Joseph Norrell Jr., b. 1815 from previous marriage.

Married second wife, Mary Bose Adams (widow of Benjamin Adams), September 6, 1827. Note Bose is Mary's maiden name. Joseph and Mary had three children their names are as follows:

1-❧-1-B-1 Sarah Norrell, born 1825 or 1826 in Virginia.

* 1-❧-1-B-2 Lecian Joseph Norrell, born September 30, 1828 in South Carolina

1-❧-1-B-3 Lucian Norrell, born 1848 in Alabama.

Married third wife, Elizabeth Johnson in Mississippi. They had three children:

1-❧-1-C-1 Richard J. Norrell, born 1852 in Mississippi.

1-❧-1-C-2 John Norrell, born 1853 in Mississippi.

1-❧-1-C-3 Sarah F. Norrell, born 1858 in Mississippi.

You will notice that our Joseph Norrell Sr. is no longer on the 1860 Census of South Carolina Head of Families, Old Ninety-Six District, Abbeville County. It has been told That he had a large boil on his neck, it was lanced and as a result, he bled to death. This was supposed to have happened sometime in 1852.

Joseph Norrell Sr. was married three times due to the death of his first and second wife. We know more about his second wife than we do his first, but here is some information on Sarah Josephine Elmore the Mother of Joseph Jr. Sarah Elmore was a teacher at The Cokesbury College and one other. Mavis "Holt" Williams once received a letter from one of the Elmore's, who credited the Elmore's as being keen (in knowledge and ability) and certainly that was early in history for a woman to be teaching, but it was true.

The 1830 Census of Abbeville County, South Carolina shows Joseph Norrell Sr. to have seven sons and one daughter, one from a previous marriage and some with Mary Adams. Elizabeth Johnson was his third wife, and was a widow. This was known to be true because there were some Johnson children in the house hold.

Joseph Sr. and Mary moved form Abbeville County, So. Carolina to Chambers County Alabama, leaving Joseph Jr. behind with his wife. Chambers County is where Joseph's brother Henry lived untill 1842. Mary and Joseph Sr. later moved to Winston County, Mississippi where some of the Adam's children had moved to sometime earlier. The economic situation must have been very tight during those days in the late 1840's. The Adams children were becoming adults and it was probably for this reason Joseph Sr. and Mary left Carolina and moved to Mississippi. Mary lived only a few years after going to that state, for the marriage of Joseph to Elizabeth Johnson was on April 6, 1854. Joseph and Mary Norrell had joined one Of Mary's sons who was already in Mississippi. It was a letter from that Adams family in the Court files in South Carolina that caused Mavis Williams to look into the Mississippi books in the first place.

In 1860 Joseph Norrell Sr. is on the Neshoba County, Mississippi Census, Township 13, Range 13 Coffadeliah. Neshoba County adjoins Leake County to the east and Winston County to the South.

Joseph Sr. it would seem did not bleed to death in 1852 after all. Hrer this Census shows some new children.

∞ The Family of Lecian/Lucian Joseph Norrell ∞

(You will notice that there are two spellings for this persons name. I can only assume that L-u-c-i-a-n is the correct one, in that, this is what is on his head stone.)

*1-∅-1-∅-2 Lecian/Lucian Joseph Norrell, son of Joseph Sr. and Mary Bose Adams Norrell. He was born in South Carolina in 1828. Married Sarah Mosley on Febuary 16, 1848 in Sumter County, Alabama. Sarah was born on April 11, 1826 in Virginia. Dad and Mom's name, Joseph and Mary Mosley. Lucian died on October 3, 1871 and Sarah died on July 22, 1885. Both are buried in the Flat Creek Cem. south east of Fountain Hill AR.

Lucian Joseph son of Joseph Sr. and Mary Bose Norrell is found with his young family on the 1850 Census of Winston County, Mississippi along with his parents and some of the Adams family.

1850 Census of Winston County, Mississippi.

Lecian Norrell	21M	b. SC.
Sarah Norrell	24F	b. VA.
Lucian Norrell	1M	b. AL.

Later Lucian and Sarah had six more children. Their names are as follows:

1-∅-1-∅-2-1 Lucian Joseph (Bose) Norrell, b. January 1848 in Alabama, Married Sally E. Pippin in Ashley County on Dec. 9, 1881. d. 1918 in Ashley County, Arkansas, buried in the Carlock Cem.

1-∅-1-∅-2-2 William Ross Norrell, b. October 24, 1851 in Mississippi. Married Rachel Francis Guice in Ashley County, d. June 14, 1929 in Ashley County, buried in the Carlock Cem.

1-∅-1-∅-2-3 Issac Francis Norrell, b. August 18, 1853 in Alabama. Married Elvie Richardson on December 23, 1885 in Ashley County, d. May 25, 1896 in Ashley County, buried in the Carlock Cem.

1-∅-1-∅-2-4 George Norrell, b. December 8, 1856 in Alabama, d. sometime after 1866 when the family came into Arkansas. (The head stone is broken and the date of death is missing.)

1-D-1-B-2-5 Mary A.R. Norrell, b. June 22, 1859 in Alabama. Married James Stinson on December 23 1883, d. January 31, 1898 in Ashley County, buried in the Carlock Cem.

1-D-1-B-2-6 Jennie Elizabeth Norrell, b. March 18, 1861 in Alabama. Married C.V. Murphy on January 11, 1877, d. February 15, 1898 in Ashley County, buried in the Carlock Cem.

1-D-1-B-2-7 Sarah (Sallie) Anner Norrell, b. September 26, 1866 in Alabama. Married J.M. Herrod on September 21 1889. Second Husband's name Ledbetter. Died in 1938 and is buried in the Carlock Cem.

Lucian J. and Sarah Mosley Norrell's family is mention in a book titled The History of Ashley County (The Pioneer Family) by J.W. Etheridge, where it is said, that the family came to Ashley County in 1856. This cannot be the correct year due to fact that three of their children were born after 1856, all of which were born in the state of Alabama. This means that Sarah would have had returned to Alabama in 1859, 1861 and 1866 for her last three children to have been born there, which is not likely.

The story goes like this: The family of Lucian J. Norrell Sr. was on their way through Arkansas (Ashley County) to Texas, when they reached Fountain Hill, Lucian told a man he met at the spring while watering his horses that he knew Dr. Denton, who lived at Fountain Hill or in the community, and asked that he give the doctor his regards as one of his neighbors in Alabama. This man, the next day, was talking with J. C. Pyron, a tanner and farmer in the community, about the traveler going through. Mr. Pyron said he would like to have seen him, that he might have been able to persuade him to farm his land for that year as he was not well and wanted to rest a year. They finally determined to try to catch up with him, got their horses and rode to Johnsville Arkansas the Marie Saline River from Longview, made a trade with him and he returned and farmed the Pyron farm north of Fountain Prairie for that year. During the time, he located his friend, Dr. Denton and a homestead in the Pine Hill country and spent his life there.
